How to Braize Ducks.

Select four plump, good sized young ducks. Wash with a cloth very thoroughly in warm water in which a tablespoonful of baking soda has been dissolved, rinse in cold water, wipe dry and rub the outside with salt. Allow the birds to lie overnight. In the morning stuff lightly both bodies and crops, sew up securely, brush with chutney sauce, place in a braising pot or pan with an onion, a carrot and a stalk of celery, all cut in dice, pour in a pint of weak stock, cover closely, run into the oven and cook without removing the upper pan for an hour and a half. At the end of that time uncover, brush the ducks with melted butter, dredge lightly with flour, increase the heat of the oven and crisply brown, allowing the ducks to cook uncovered for half an hour.

How to Make Olive Sandwiches.

Cut some thin slices of brown bread and butter. Trim them neatly. Boil two eggs till quite hard. Lay them in cold water and mix with them a dozen stoned and finely chopped olives. Add the juice of half a lemon and season carefully. Spread the mixture on the bread and butter and roll it up lightly or cover it with another slice. Olives are well liked appetizers, and this sandwich is one of the daintiest for afternoon tea.

How to Prepare Clam Chowder.

Strain the water in which one onion, one carrot, one stalk of celery has boiled add to the strained liquor of 25 clams add one-fourth pound of salt pork to one piece, one pint raw potatoes cut in small blocks, one teaspoonful of flour made in good party and formed into small balls as small as possible, boil three-fourths of an hour, discard the piece of pork, add the clams, cut very fine, piece of butter the size of an egg, one pint of baked milk added after the chowder has been removed from the fire a sprinkling of parsley. This is an improvement on the thick chowders usually given.

How to Make Lenten Irish Stew.

Twelve potatoes, six large onions, a carrot, a little chopped parsley, two ounces butter, a little pepper and salt four poached eggs. Peel and slice the potatoes, put them in a stewpan with the onions, sliced carrot, parsley salt and half a pint of water. Boil for three-quarters of an hour, or till the vegetables are done. Stir in the butter and serve with the poached eggs.

A well earned meed of praise is due Prof. W. E. Sharp, the genial leader of the Orpheum orchestra. Since Mr. Sharp undertook his present duties the personnel of the orchestra has materially improved, till, at the present time, the music provided nightly is an attraction outside of the program.

The Oath Matter.

Attorney General Cooper says he was misreported in a contemporary with reference to Mr. Loebenstein and the oath. What he told the reporter was that when Mr. LeBlond showed him the papers for mandamus proceedings to be taken in Mr. Loebenstein's case, he informed Mr. LeBlond that he had written to the Board of Registration at Hilo advising them that, if Mr. Loebenstein had taken the old oath, he should not be required to take the new one. He had not ordered but simply advised the board in the matter.

Charles Creighton is back to his office after a severe attack of grip.

Galvanized Water Pipe.

The market has been nearly bare on this item for some weeks, but we have now received, per "Iroquois," a lot of 1-2, 3-4 and 1 inch, which will go so quick that you better call early if you have any piping to do. By same vessel we received a lot of Canal or R. R. barrows which also come to a good market these days of new plantations, new roads &c. The "Geo. W. Curtis" is due soon from N. Y. and then we will be flooded with all sorts of Hardware as she will have the largest shipment we have ever received from New York.
